

The Falconer Trust is a local charity which supports the Falconer Children's Home in Kabulamema, in a remote part of Zambia.

By the time you read this, Neil will have just returned from a visit to the Home, along with Dennis, one of the trustees of the Falconer Trust.

Please pray for everyone at the Falconer Home, with the many challenges that they face - especially at this time as severe drought throughout Zambia has resulted in serious food insecurity. Pray that the children and staff are able to obtain enough food for every day, and that they stay healthy.

Pray also for the great amount of building work taking place at the Home, in order to provide adequate living accommodation for the children.

Pray for Neil and the trustees, as they seek to support the Home through raising finance, as well as giving support and encouragement to all at the Home. Pray that they may make wise decisions regarding the future of the Trust and of the Home.
